Dr. Guy Stanton Ford, former president of the University of Minnesota and executive secretary of the American Historical Association, a former Wilmot resident, died December 29, at the age of 89 in Washington, D. C.

He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Ford. His father, a country doctor in Wilmot for several years, ran the drug store there.

He did research in Germany and later taught history at Yale university and University of Illinois before joining the Minnesota faculty. He served as Minnesota's president from 1939 to 1941. He edited the American Historical Association Review as well as serving as executive secretary of the organization from 1941 to 1953, was editor-in-chief of Compton's and was historian with the Library of Congress. He is survived by his wife, the former Grace Ellis, Bristol, a son and daughter.

Gray Lady of The Month

Red Cross Volunteer of the Month for December is Mrs. George Cottrell of Lake Bluff. As Chairman of Gray Lady Service for Lake County, Mrs. Cottrell brought honor to herself and the Gray Ladies of Lake County when, during the month of December, she organized and supervised more than 60 Gray Ladies in helping collect more than 1,000 pints of blood from recruits at the Naval Training Center.

The outstanding manner in which the Gray Ladies conducted themselves during this two-day, week-end operation, brought praise from the U. S. Navy and the National Red Cross. Mrs. Cottrell has been active as a Red Cross Gray Lady for more than 10 years. Although a mother of three children, she devotes many hours each week to helping others, in the Red Cross uniform of a Gray Lady.

It's C-Cold!

A chilly 22 degrees below zero was the official low Wednesday morning at 8 a. m. in Antioch, according to Roy Kufalk, official weather recorder in Antioch.

The temperature was 18 below at 5 a. m., but had sunk to the low 22 below by 8 a. m. A still frigid 14 below was the official reading at noon.

Residents having unofficial thermometers may scoff at the official report — some were reporting 30 below temperatures.

The prospect for tonight and tomorrow doesn't seem to be any better, with forecasters making no promises of a break in the weather.

A bus from the Antioch Grade School broke down on Route 173 Wednesday morning. Pupils were taken back to their homes by school officials. Parents of children who would be waiting for the out-of-commission bus were called and told to have their children return home. The driver of the bus suffered a frostbitten foot while directing traffic around the stalled bus.

Mr. Whitaker said that school would be dismissed one-half hour early Wednesday. Pupils would be kept inside the school until transportation home could be provided.

Mr. Polley said Antioch High School had no bus trouble from the cold. Buses not kept inside are fitted with electric water heaters.

Lose Driver License

The license of Theodore H. Schmidkonz, Rt. 4, Box 335, Antioch, has been revoked for driving while intoxicated, according to announcement of the office of Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter.

The license of Stephen J. Ledvina, Rt. 2, Lake Villa, and Raymond F. Wehrs, Jr., Rt. 1, Box 187, Lake Villa, were suspended following three violations.

Hearing On New Zoning January 31

A meeting to explain the proposed new Lake County Zoning Ordinance and hear complaints on the ordinance will be held at the American Legion Hall on Ida Avenue in Antioch on Thursday, January 31.

The meeting will start at 10 a. m. Robert Morris of the Lake County Planning Commission will be in charge of the meeting.

The review of the zoning ordinance and registering of complaints will apply to all of Antioch Township, including the unincorporated portions outside the village.

At previous hearings held in other townships, numerous protests have been made against various aspects of the new ordinance.

Officials of Abbott Laboratories and Searle Drugs claimed that if the new zoning laws went through their companies' expansion plans would be dead. Property which the firms had purchased for expansion was rezoned from Industrial to Estate and Agriculture in the new ordinance.

A group of Lake County contractors and realtors have formed a committee to study the new ordinance and protest some of the provisions.

Marion Engle, speaking for the group, said he felt the ordinance should be altered to the dangers of the zoning ordinances. The committee feels that passage of the new zoning ordinance would completely stifle growth in the county, particularly industrial growth.

Mr. Engle pointed out that under the new ordinance 99% of the unincorporated area of the county would become non-conforming. This would include present industries in unincorporated areas as well as subdivisions.

As non-conforming property, Mr. Engle said, should damage amounting to more than 50% of ASSESSED valuation, by fire or other means, occur to buildings, the owner could not rebuild.

As assessed valuation is roughly considered 50% of a property's real value, this would mean that a $12,000 home, assessed at $6,000, suffering more than $3,000 damage, could not be rebuilt or repaired.

Mr. Engle urged Lake County residents to study the non-conformance section of the proposed ordinance and to attend township meetings in order to become familiar with possible effects of the rulings on their own property.

Charles Cermak, a member of the committee of realtors, says anyone desiring information on the new ordinance may call him at 395-3535.

Zion Passion Play Starts

The Zion Passion Play, which has been presented yearly since 1935, will have its first performance this season on Sunday afternoon, 3 p. m., on April 21. Presentations of the play will be given weekly on Sunday afternoon from that date until June 23.

The play is held in the West Campus Auditorium on Brookside Ave., in Waukegan.

The Zion Passion Play is produced by the Rev. Jabez Taylor and sponsored by the Christian Catholic Church. Christ is portrayed by Charles Paxton, supported by a cast of 200 players.

Musical interludes are supplied by the Zion Symphony Orchestra, directed by Dr. Rudolph Reimers.

Once For All, 'All For One' Is Feb. 8 & 9

When is the Palette, Masque & Lyre group presenting its play, "All for One"?

It's February 8 and 9, Friday and Saturday, no matter what we said last week or the week before.

Two weeks ago Annie Mae announced, erroneously, that the play would be shown March 7. Last week she corrected her error, but only to commit a fresh error. She slated the play for February 7.

We talked to the mysterious Annie Mae (by phone, of course. We don't know who she is, either. Mr. Shepard blindfolds the office force while he dials her number). She explained that she had gotten her information second hand and didn't have contact with personnel of the play who might have corrected her misinformation. So that's how it happened.

We think we have the date right now. We hope so. It's February 8 & 9. We're pretty sure.

Open House

An Open House is being planned to celebrate the 95th birthday of Miss Alice Smith on January 29. The Open

Miss Alice Smith

House will be held at her home at 333 Ida Ave. and will run from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m.

The Alice Circle of the Methodist Church feted Miss Smith at their meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Gaston on Wednesday, Jan. 16.

Marine Corps Reserve Has Openings

Openings are now available in the Marine Corps Reserve Six Month Program. If you are between the ages of 17 and 26, single, and physically fit, there is a job for you.

Enlistment requires attending six months active duty within 120 days of enlistment. On completion of six months active duty you are required to attend scheduled meetings one weekend a month and two weeks summer camp each year.

Those interested can contact the Marine Corps Reserve office at the Great Lakes Training Center in person at building 3004 or by phone (MAJestic 3-7447) for further information.

Install Cermak As Head of Realtors

Charles Cermak of Antioch will be installed as president of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors at the 45th annual installation of officers Monday night, Jan. 28.

The meeting will be held at the Glen Flora Country Club, and will include dinner, entertainment and dancing.

Change School Name, Add to Curriculum

The Board of Education of Antioch High School voted to conduct another experiment in closed circuit TV by providing video coverage of the Lake Forest basketball game scheduled for January 25 at the High School.

TV monitors—six of them—will be placed in the auditorium for this game. Superintendent Dittman said the sound reception should be better in the auditorium. Viewers will pay the same admission as those seated in the gym.

Superintendent Dittman asked the board to consider the TV equipment not merely in its use for special events such as basketball games, but as an educational supplement.

Insurance Bid Accepted
Bids on insurance for the school were opened, and the board voted to accept the low bid of Nationwide Insurance, presented by Elmer Windorf, for Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage and Vandalism and Malicious Mischief. The annual fee was $2,005.51. The low bid of Bernard Osmond Insurance was accepted for sprinkler leakage, at an annual cost of $1,454.45. Mr. Osmond later informed the board that he could not accept the Sprinkler Leakage insurance as a separate package, so Mr. Windorf was awarded the entire insurance contract. Seven firms submitted bids on the insurance—Osmond, Merritt, Sexauer, Nelson, Meinersma, Cermak (Nation Wide) and Romer.

Warren Polley reported that there would probably be no need to add another bus to handle student transportation for the 1963-64 school year, but that one bus, a 1954 model, should be replaced.

Change Name of High School
The board voted to change the name of the school from Antioch Township High School to Antioch Community High School as of July 1, 1963, at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

Superintendent Dittman reported that there was no progress in the matter of railroad assessment objections. Taxes on railroad lands are being held by the State's Attorney pending the outcome of objections by the railroads. Mr. Dittman pointed out that this would affect Antioch in a lesser amount, as there is only one railroad going through the village.

Railroad lands are at present assessed at 100% of valuation, while most property is assessed at 55% of valuation. Mr. Dittman pointed out that it would be well if all interested parties would write to the General Assembly urging that a more equitable valuation assessment be adopted, to avoid the filing of objections each year by the railroads, with resultant withholding of tax funds.

Date of the next school board meeting has been changed from February 20 to February 13 because of a conflict of dates with Mr. Dittman's attendance at the American Association of School Administrators' Convention in Atlantic City.

Add to Curriculum
Roger Prossie, chairman of the curriculum committee, reported the recommendations of that committee to the board. Changes in the 1963-64 curriculum will include:

One-fourth of an academic credit will be given for Health Education on each of the 9th and 10th grade levels. Notethand, a semester course for college-bound students, will be offered in business education.

Office Machines and Office Practice will be changed from one semester to two semesters.

Another part-time counselor will be assigned for four periods daily to the Guidance Department. This will allow the assignment of a counselor to each of the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades.

The third year of Spanish, German and Latin will be offered as soon as student interest meets a minimum of 15 students per class. Fourth year in these languages will be offered, with combination of third and fourth year classes, as soon as feasible.

French will be added to the curriculum after third and fourth year of the other languages is well established.

Consideration of the introduction of an Art program was abandoned at this time, as being too costly and space consuming. Mr. Dittman estimates that enrollment by 1967 will reach 1100. He recommended that the Board of Education begin plans for additional building within two years.

Name Leaders Of Fund Drive

Four well-known civic leaders have accepted appointments to head the Lake County Museum's $525,000 Fund Drive in the county's four quadrants. The four are Robert Sabonjian, Waukegan Mayor; Karl I. Berning, Lake County Treasurer; John Babcock, county assistant supervisor of assessments; and Mrs. John L. Steitz, member of the Lake County Regional Planning Commission.

Sabonjian, Mrs. Steitz, and Berning are also Museum trustees.

Elmer B. Vliet, General Campaign Chairman and retired head of Abbott Laboratories, said the four will be known as Associate Chairmen in their respective areas. They will now name their staffs in preparation for the drive in the latter part of February.

Mrs. Steitz will be responsible for the Northwest townships of Lake Villa, Antioch, Avon and Grant.

Besides these and Mr. Vliet, one other top man of the campaign team has already been named. He is E. Ward Just, publisher of the Waukegan News-Sun, who will be Honorary Chairman.

Funds from the Museum drive will be used to construct a fire-resistant building to house Lake County historical documents, articles and displays and to perpetuate the institution.

Abderholden New Secretary

Dr. E. R. Abderholden of Antioch was elected secretary of the officers of the medical staff of St. Therese Hospital at a staff meeting recently.

The newly elected officers of the staff will be installed at the meeting of January 21. Dr. R. W. Adelman of Waukegan was elected president and Dr. W. J. Reedy of Waukegan, vice president.

Outgoing president, Dr. H. A. Topper of Waukegan, will serve on the executive committee.

Museum Board Starts Fund Drive & Makes Building Plans

Tentative plans for the new building that will house the Lake County Museum of History were outlined today by H. Brooks Smith, chairman of the 15-member museum board.

The one-story plus basement building, which will be constructed upon successful completion of the museum's $525,000 fund raising campaign, will take advantage of the most up-to-date thinking in museum construction, Mr. Smith said.

The building will be built on 20 acres of county-owned land immediately north of Libertyville on Rte. 63. The county board recently agreed to lease the land to the museum board for 99 years at one dollar per year.

Title to the museum building—expected to cost several hundred thousand dollars—will be turned over to the county when construction is completed. The museum board, however, will continue to run the institution's activities.

The museum board will be unalarmed and will merely act as trustees of the non-profit educational institution.

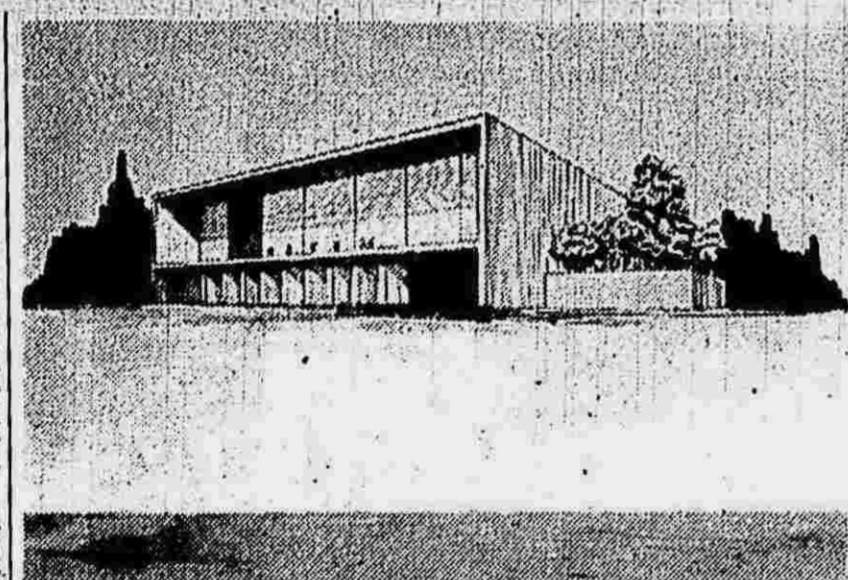

Smith said the building would contain 20,000 square feet on the basement level and 20,000 square feet on the first floor. It would be basically an open structure on the inside with movable partitions so that displays could be changed easily.

The partitions would set off a serpentine corridor that would lead visitors from one display to another.

One of the highlights of the building is expected to be a full-scale reproduction of a typical county-town street at the end of the 19th century.

Lake County architects have been contacted on the project and have been asked if they would like to submit detailed proposals and sketches. More than a dozen have replied and their answers are being studied by the museum board building committee.

The $525,000 the museum board is aiming for when it launches the fund campaign in February, will be used to construct the building, to purchase the privately owned portion of historical articles and documents now housed in a barn on Wadsworth Road, and to help perpetuate the institution. The movement to turn the private museum in Wadsworth into a public museum started 18 months ago when a museum board of trustees was organized.

Since that time, fund raising counsel has been obtained, tentative plans agreed upon and organization of the fund drive developed.

Elmer B. Vliet, retired chairman of Abbott Laboratories, is the general chairman of the campaign and F. Ward Just, publisher of the Waukegan News-Sun is honorary chairman.

Four campaign associate chairmen—Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian and three county officials, Karl Berning, Mrs. John Steitz and John Babcock—were appointed last week. They are presently enlisting their district leaders.

Also this week, announcement was made of the formation of a 30-member speakers' bureau that will cover all of the county to explain the museum's campaign. It is headed by Dave Davis, news director of Waukegan Radio WKRS.

Campaign headquarters have been set up at 1905 Washington Street, Waukegan.

Almost 30 Lake County residents will fan out over the county within the next several weeks on a speaking tour to explain the $525,000 fund raising campaign of the Lake County Museum.

The speakers, armed with facts and explanations on the proposed uses of the money, are expected to talk to more than a hundred civic organizations and clubs between February 1 and April.

The actual soliciting for funds is expected to start late in February.

Dave Davis, chairman of the speakers' bureau and news director of Waukegan radio station WKRS, said a member of his group will be available to any organization, that requests a talk.

Arrangements for a speaker can be made by contacting Davis at the Station, DE 6-7900, or the museum campaign headquarters, MA 3-1214.

Davis said he would meet with the speaking group within ten days to outline the program, to supply members with facts about the museum and its campaign and to give out speaking assignments.

Since 1957, the county has had a privately owned museum on Wadsworth Road, just east of Rte. 41. For the past six years, its staff has displayed privately owned and donated collections.

Last year a 15-member museum board was organized to turn the institution into a public museum.

The money from the campaign will be used to construct a centrally located museum building on land leased from the county, to acquire the privately owned portion of the collections and to perpetuate the museum.

Let It Snow!

"Everybody talks about the weather but nobody does anything about it." That's an old cliché, and unfortunately, it's no longer true.

Trouble is, everybody's doing something about it. Business as usual is the motto now, come snow or sub-zero temperatures.

Time was, when we got a few inches of snow with a strong wind and the temperature sank below zero, everything came to a stop. Pop couldn't get to work, the kids stayed home from school, the phone quit working and frequently the electricity was off, too. The car wouldn't start, and who cared? Even if you got it started, you couldn't plow through the snow.

Now snow plows work all night and we can always get to work. Linemen work all night on phone and electric wires, too, so that there will be no interruption of service. So we all feel duty bound to get out in the bitter wind, scuff through miserable wet snow, battle with a recalcitrant car until it wakens to life, and go to work every day. We don't even have a legitimate excuse to miss a club meeting.

Ah, for the good old snowbound days! The days when everybody stayed home in bad weather, relaxed, ate, played cards, and in general just frittered away the day, warm and snug inside, while winter piled the snows outside and pushed the mercury down.

Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow! And may the snowplows all break down!

SPRINGFIELD

By Senator Paul Simon
Birth Control Confuses the Issue

The most talked-about issue now facing the legislature is whether those receiving Public Aid should be given state assistance for birth control.

It's exciting to talk about, stir all kinds of religious controversy—and thoroughly misses the big problem.

Personally, it's difficult for me to justify the state providing this assistance to those who are unmarried or divorced. In a sense this subsidizes what our laws prohibit. Further, there is no evidence—to my knowledge—that this action will yield any savings to the state. The result might even be the opposite, increased costs.

But regardless of the amount saved or spent, this whole discussion takes us away from the real question. The big budget items that are the major concerns are General Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children, called ADC. Most of those on these programs are poor, uneducated people who cannot read or write, or people who are handicapped either physically or by the lack of skill that is needed in our society today.

The county with the highest percentage of recipients is St. Clair County, where East St. Louis is. The areas which have the largest percentage of people on Public Aid there are the Negro areas. Some have moved from the south where they may have had very limited educational opportunities. Others grew up in Illinois, where they failed to take advantage of the educational opportunities that were here—and they were sometimes not so good.

Some got as much education as they felt was necessary at the time they left school. They got jobs at a packing plant, and when the plant moved away no one had any use for their limited skills.

Now they're on Public Aid. Few want to be. But a middle-aged white man has a hard time finding a job. A 50-year old Negro with no skills—that's really rough.

Virgil Martin, a Chicago business executive who for a short while was chairman of the Public Aid Commission, understood all of this. "We are still in the Industrial Revolution and we have to help people to adjust to it," he said over and over.

In Chicago a start has been made. Raymond Hilliard has pioneered in this and done a superb job. People who could not read and write are being taught that skill. If they're given the opportunity to go to school and won't do it, they're taken off the Public Aid rolls.

This approach of giving people at least a little education, giving them skills which are needed, is the right approach, not sensational headline-catching methods which avoid the basic problem.

This must be the job of the total community, not just the government.

Churches, schools, service clubs and other groups need to help. In communities where the help is needed the most, my impression is that those best in a position to offer solid assistance are doing little.

The problems of East St. Louis are mentioned here, but to a degree what can be found there can be found in every county in the state, and it is true of whites and Negroes.

You can substitute the name of your area when you read this.

Progress will be slow, but unless we understand the real problem there won't be any progress at all.

LET'S OUTLAW PROFESSIONAL BOXING

It's not the most important measure to come before the session, but a bill that is going to be presented would outlaw professional boxing in Illinois. The proposal will have my support. Professional boxing is a "sport" only in the sense that Nero's throwing Christians to the lions was a sport.

It is the only "sport" in which the goal is physical injury to the opponent.

There are nine boxers killed each year, on an average, and this hits the headlines, but what does not hit the headlines are the many boxers who end up "punchy" each year. The constant pounding on the head results in severe damage to the brain. There are many who have been fortunate enough to come away from the "sport" apparently with no ill effects, but there are many others who have not been that lucky.

By comparison, bull fighting and cock fighting—which we outlaw—are relatively humane.

I don't favor either of these "sports," but we in the United States can hardly claim any moral superiority on this issue when we pay huge sums to see two unfortunate human beings knock each other's brains out—literally.

Most of the profits from these bouts does not go to the men who fight, but to the managers and promoters.

Another factor that must be considered is that too often there is a tie-in between this "sport" and the underworld element. To anyone who reads the newspapers, this does not need documentation.

A nationally prominent bout recently was prohibited in New York—and within 24 hours was scheduled in Illinois. This should not make any Illinois heart swell with pride.

Until 1918 professional boxing was illegal in most states. The argument used to make it legal was that we should encourage the development of the art of self-defense.

I know of no legislator who wants to outlaw high school or college boxing, where young people with well-padded gloves learn to box.

But there is no comparison between these things and the professional blood-bath which some would like to drape in the honorable toga of a sport. "But aren't people hurt in football also?" some may ask.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU BURKIN

There seems to us something inconsistent about the lambasting Chicago newspapers are giving State Representative W. J. Murphy since his appointment as House Majority Leader in Springfield.

No mention of the "West Side bloc" was made by the metropolitan press until the key post went outside Cook County and suddenly there was a great hue and cry that the evil machinations of this insidious group had reached into Antioch to pluck one of its own for Majority Leader.

Murphy is being criticized again for his sponsorship of a bill which would have made legalized bingo possible after a local option referendum.

This has been labeled as a "gamblers bill," but the big pressure and the principal lobbying for the bill before the legislature went into session came from veterans' groups, church groups, and fraternal organizations who wanted bingo so they could carry on some of their own "worthy" activities.

These voices that had been crying for assistance before the bill came up for a vote were strangely silent at the showdown and Murphy suddenly found himself alone.

Would it be too cynical to suggest that had the illegal gambling interests been behind the bill to legalize bingo it would have had a much better chance at passage?

The West Side bloc is a favorite whipping boy of the Chicago press, but there never seems to be any real effort to break up the bloc and the only time it seems to get mentioned is when some outsider is to be chastised through inference that he is connected with the infamous, but usually nameless bloc.

The "new" Bob Coulson made an appearance before the Waukegan Township Republican organization the other p.m. and left behind an enthusiastic and aroused audience.

The new State Senator has never been considered an "organization" man and in fact he has often regarded the regular Republican Party with a casual cavalier attitude although he wears the GOP label proudly.

It appears that Sen. Coulson is shedding his "independent" attitude and is ready and eager to join the team and work with the precinct committeemen and other party officials.

In his brief talk Sen. Coulson demanded complete party loyalty of all committeemen after the organization has put its stamp of approval on a candidate or an issue.

The talk was a real tail-twister and brought forth memories of the late Dick Lyons, who was unofficial cheer leader and pep-talk giver for Lake County Republicans for many years.

The controversy between the Lake County Forest Preserve Board of Commissioners and its "advisory" board is reaching ridiculous proportions with the two bodies not even meeting together any more.

Your Governor Reports
by OTTO KERNER

One of my recommendations to the 73rd General Assembly asks that the compulsory school age be increased because our changing world demands more education from a worker.

I asked that the compulsory age be 17 years, instead of the present 16, or high school graduation, whichever comes sooner. This was recommended to me by the Governor's Committee on Unemployment comprised of 40 men representing industry, labor, government and education. These men worked 18 months to give us a blueprint to follow in the area of employment and unemployment.

Included in this report is the startling fact that 30.5% of our youth in Illinois do not finish high school. We long have been aware of the school drop-out problem but to see columns of figures detailing this problem still comes as a shock.

The effects of the drop out problem on our economy are obvious because the changing technologies of our day require that workers be more educated, more skilled than ever before. Without a high school education, many young people find themselves out of work.

I am sure that parents throughout the state will agree that anything that helps urge their children to continue their education is a vital contribution to our country's future.

A testament of this problem are the rolls of unemployed, of public assistance and, still more tragic, police blotters.

Raising the compulsory school age is not a cure-all. It is but one of many efforts that must be made to encourage our youth to stay in school, to think of the future and to ready themselves for gainful employment.

The reasons for raising the compulsory school age are many. It gives the formal educational institutions another year of influence, guidance and teaching. It is explicit recognition of the importance of high school graduation.

It graduates the job-directed youth at an age when he no longer comes in conflict with the child labor laws and at an age when he can enter apprenticeship training, which usually has a minimum entrance age of 18. It allows continuation of the maturing process in a favorable environment.

I am sure that parents throughout the state will agree that anything that helps urge their children to continue their education is a vital contribution to our country's future.

Like To Take Hikes?

Would you like to know what a naturalist finds interesting in the winter landscape?

There will be a winter hike at the Illinois Beach State Park, Feb. 2, at 1 p.m., led by an outstanding Wisconsin naturalist, James H. Zimmerman. The outing is sponsored by the Great Lakes Chapter of the Sierra Club, an organization with nationwide membership, which will be holding its second annual meeting the first week in February, at the Illinois Beach State Park Lodge.

Persons interested in nature are invited by the Club to join in the hike Saturday afternoon, meeting at the Lodge.

If the weather is too inclement for field work, Dr. Zimmerman will give an illustrated talk, "The Ecological Camera," or conduct a short out-of-door trip and then show slides. Dr. Zimmerman, naturalist of the Madison School Forest, teaches at the Madison Adult School, classes that introduce people to the art of "reading the landscape," for which enrollment is at a premium.

The Great Lakes Chapter of the Sierra Club invites those attending the hike to stay for its banquet that evening. For information about reservations for the banquet call Miss Ruth Kay, 2002 W. At the high school and collegiate level it is a sport; at the professional level it is a show. Because it is a show, wrestlers can take the relatively mild punishment of the wrestling ring almost every day in the year. A professional boxer who fought every day would be dead before the end of the year.

If you are interested in this issue of outlawing professional boxing, may I suggest that you see the movie, "Requiem for a Heavyweight." It is a disturbing look at a brutal "sport" we tolerate.

MY OLE GRANDPAPPY
USED TO SAY!

By the Rev. Fr. Edmond E. Hood

Why is it that the ten-cent piece a man gives to his wife, generally looks so much bigger than the dollar he spends on himself?

An extravagant man is always talking to his wife about the necessity of economy.

The sins that pay their rent promptly are the last ones we want to give up.

When all people are willing to become as good as they think their neighbors ought to be, the millennium will come.

new members appointed by the Board of Commissioners because they are obviously tainted with politics.

The advisory board feels that its membership should be made up of people interested in conservation, dedicated to establishment of a real live forest preserve district complete with sites, and unhampered by political considerations.

The committee would also appreciate a little action by the commissioners in the acquisition of suitable forest preserve sites.

The Board of Commissioners, headed by Taiste Aho, insists on some control over who goes on the advisory committee and how long they stay there.

Apparently the commissioners are less concerned with the acquisition of real estate than they are with the acquisition of full authority over the district.

If the controversy is ever resolved perhaps the district can borrow the new county forester to go into Van Patten Woods and lay out some nature trails, see that some of the underbrush is cleared away, and the area made suitable for hikes and nature study groups.

Rehearsing Play

Once again the Masters and Matrons of the Lake Villa Community Methodist Church will bring forth the thespian efforts of the group with their second play to be given on April 19 and 20. The three-act play is called "Me and My Shadow", and is one hilarious situation after another with complications galore for poor Roy Harrington, played by Robert Henderson. Arlene Harrington (Peggy Wold) is away a day or two and poor little "Shadow" (Marcy Rolin) comes on the scene to really, but innocently, complicate Roy's life. Roy's mother-in-law, Mrs. King (Eloise Brown) really didn't like Roy in the first place and doesn't help him at all—and then the nosy neighbor, Georgia Butler (Dorothy Smith) shows up at the most inopportune times. The Harrington maid, Susan Fischer (Mary Jane Rolin) in her own way, enjoys Mr. Harrington's misery. "Sabu" (Ed Thamerus) shows up to make matters worse and the Sheriff (uncast)

Writing in the May issue of Harper's Magazine, Richard B. McAdoo urges that companies give executives a year's sabbatical every 11 years, in order to prevent them from becoming automatic drones—tired, uncreative, wasted. If this was done, he believes, the companies would get better mileage does his bit—and I guess you'd say it will all "come out" in the wash.

The play is directed by Mrs. John Chmellir, and will be at the Lake Villa Grade School on Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20.

from hard-pressed, high-priced brainpower.

An important part of winter driving, says the Chicago Motor Club, is to learn to recognize road signs by their shape. Signs sometimes become covered in a blizzard or passing traffic may splatter them with mud and blot out the letters. Eight-sided signs always mean a full stop; diamond shaped signs indicate danger; and circular signs denote railroad crossings.

Check Sweater Before Buying

URBANA — Sweater construction is worth checking at any price level to help guarantee lasting satisfaction. But it is especially necessary in buying "sale" merchandise to make sure you are really getting a good buy, says Esther Siemen, University of Illinois extension textiles and clothing specialist.

Miss Siemen suggests taking special note of how the sweater is made at the seams and joinings, neck and front opening.

Seams should be neat, closely stitched, with no loose threads or yarns, and free from bulkiness. If the sweater has been cut and sewn, the seams should be overcast with thread to keep edges of fabric from ravelling. Cut and sewn sweaters are cut to shape from flat yardage and then sewn together at side seams, armholes and across the shoulder. This process is less expensive than full-fashioning (shaping and binding off by machine), but not all cut and sewn sweaters are inexpensive. Also be sure that a cut and sewn sweater is cut on the grain. In the best grades of sweaters, the waist and sleeve bands are joined by the hand-looping process that continues the knitting without a seam.

Seams that are subjected to strain or areas where it is desirable to prevent stretching, such as shoulder seams, should be reinforced. This reinforcing is usually done by taping.

Double ribbing provides a stronger finish than single ribbing at the neck, as well as in waist and sleeve bands.

In many better grade sweaters, elastic thread is used in the neck ribbing to help hold shape.

Check front openings to be sure they are on grain. See that ribbon reinforcement is neat and strong to provide a good backing for buttons and buttonholes. Poor-quality ribbon may fade or shrink.

Knit banding on front edges will eliminate the possibility that ribbon will fade or shrink in relation to rest of the garment, but the knit band may be bulky.

Buttonholes should be cut straight with the grain and spaced evenly, at the same distance from the edge. Buttonhole stitching should be deep enough and close to-cause the meeting lasts until 2 p.m. and a lot of information about the program change in Girl Scouting, and the training courses to be made available. Every troop should be represented at this important meeting.

Now for Troop News:
Brownie Troop 187 has been busy with projects that sound like Spring and Summer. At a recent meeting they churned real butter and then treated themselves to some on crackers. Mrs. Betty Wilson, their leader, reports that they enjoyed it very much, and with so many eager hands at the church, it went surprisingly fast. Another project these little girls have in the making is a chemical garden. Beginning with a large cinder and lots of salt, ink, iodine and food coloring, they hope to produce a colorful setting for little Japanese figures. We'll keep you posted as to how this project works out.

Moving down to the Lake Villa end of our Neighborhood, we had a report from 211, Intermediate Girl Scouts, on the fine surprise their sponsors, the West Miltmore Ladies' Auxiliary, had for them at their Christmas party. Represented by Mrs. M. E. Colbert, the Auxiliary presented the girls with pop-sicles and a Christmas gift at one of the regular meetings. The troop leader Mrs. Gedjeski, assisted by her co-leader, Mrs. McCarthy, and a volunteer helper, Mrs. Peter Schmeisser, ran some games and served refreshments to the 21 girls present.

Bringing you up to date on the doings of Troop 201, Grass Lake Intermediates, their leader, Mrs. Alice Johnson, had a lot to report as to their activities over the holidays and since. Back-tracking to the Christmas party, these girls combined theirs with a nice service project.

As each arrived at the meeting she deposited an item of food in a basket on the work table. After this was generously filled it was delivered to some unknown needy family in the area to help make their Christmas a little happier. Then the girls decorated a tree with traditional Swedish paper ornaments which had been made at previous meetings. Games and dancing followed by a delicious array of Christmas goodies prepared by the Bluebird Patrol completed the festivities.

The girls had a grab-bag gift exchange and each took home her own paper ornaments for the family tree.

On December 21, at 7:30 p.m. they all met at their leader's home and went out to sing Christmas carols to their neighbors. These were enjoyed by many people and the 18 girls who participated did so enthusiastically. Voices carried beautifully over the crisp, cold air. Upon the insistence of the three adults who were with them they finally adjourned to Mrs. Johnson's home for cookies, hot cider and chocolate.

These busy girls paid a visit to the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. office in Antioch on January 16, and were welcomed courteously by a representative who showed them the innermost workings of a dial telephone office. The girls were interested to learn how long a period the phone company could produce their own power in case of a failure. The girls asked questions and generally enjoyed this experience along with their leaders.

Attention, all adults! Reserve Saturday evening, February 23, for a special event planned by the Sequoyah Neighborhood. More details will follow next week.

The Chicago Motor Club warns drivers to be alert for street hazards just inside dark viaducts. It also is wise to use caution when entering a viaduct during or after a heavy rain storm to avoid drenching your car's brake mechanism.

Sequoit Five Drop Two; Tie For Fourth Place

The Wauconda Bulldogs dumped Antioch into fourth place in the Northwest Suburban Conference Friday night as they topped the Sequoits by a 65 to 51 score, at Wauconda.

The Sequoits matched the sub-zero weather with some equally cold shooting in the first quarter, hitting on only 3 out of 15 attempts. It was a little better in the second period but they managed only 12 points before the buzzer sounded the half. During these two sessions the Bulldogs were hitting an impressive 54% of their shots from the field and racking up 40 points in the process.

Trailing by 21 points opening the third quarter, the Sequoits, led by Doug Lang and Bob Kubicki, managed to out-point their foes 17 to 10. The Sequoits rallied to gain a 15 to 9 edge in the scoring for the final stanza but the first half lead proved too wide a margin.

Doug Lang again led the Sequoits in scoring with 14 points on 6 baskets and 2 free throws. Bob Kubicki followed with 13 and John Hallwas scored 10 points.

Don Miller and Mike Freund led the winners with 18 and 17 points respectively. Antioch had the edge in rebounding with 37 rebounds to Wauconda's 34. Lang did the heavy work on the boards, grabbing off 14, followed by Hallwas with 8 rebounds.

A good second half by the Sequoits boosted their shooting to 33 percent for the game. Poor free throw shooting plagued Antioch throughout the game as they managed to cash in on only 9 points at the charity line. The Sequoits were far below their normal 70% free throw average.

SEQUOITS LOSE TO GRAYSLAKE

After leading by 3 points at halftime, the Sequoits finally lost 71 to 61 to Grayslake Saturday night in their first home appearance since January 4. The loss put them in a tie for fourth place with the Rams behind Lake Forest, Grant and Wauconda.

The Rams moved into a 17 to 16 first quarter lead on the strength of some hot shooting by 6'5" Craig Alderton. Alderton collected 4 of his 6 baskets in the first quarter, hitting on 4 of 5 attempts.

The Sequoits rallied to move in front 35 to 32 at halftime. The Sequoits increased their lead in the third quarter and with about 3 minutes of a period gone they were leading 47 to 41.

The Rams put on an 18 point burst at this point. Led by Jimmy Stone who poured

Scouts Win Two, Hold First Place

The Lake Forest Scouts made a clean sweep last weekend and retained sole possession of first place in the Northwest Suburban Conference. The Scouts whipped Round Lake on Friday night 56 to 43 and Warren the following evening 77 to 61.

Big seven foot Craig Spitzer was again the standout. Spitzer dumped in 40 points in the two games while hauling in 41 rebounds to lead his team both offensively and defensively.

The two wins kept Lake Forest 2 games in front of the pack as the second round of play begins. The Scouts will come to Antioch Friday for a game with Antioch. The Sequoits gave them a scare for three quarters in the two teams' first meeting. The Scouts finally won in the fourth quarter, 64 to 49.

Rabbit Season Closes January 31

Although the 1962 pheasant hunting season is over, lively sport still awaits Illinois nimrods who hunt the wily cottontail. The rabbit season is open until Jan. 31. Last year more than one-third of a million Illinois hunters took nearly 3½ million rabbits in the state, according to data obtained by a biologist of the Illinois Department of Conservation.

JOHN LEAR (22) waits to take a pass from Doug Lang (54) after Lang gained control of a loose ball. Lang collected 11 rebounds and scored 13 points in a losing cause against Grayslake Saturday night. Bob Kubicki was high scorer for the evening with 24 points.

in 8 points before the period ended the Rams pulled out in front to stay.

Trailing 59 to 52 going into the final stanza, the Sequoits hit another cold spell and managed only 9 points before the final gun sounded. Grayslake meanwhile dumped in 12 points to increase their margin of victory.

In spite of the poor fourth quarter the Sequoits hit on 50% of their shots to 48% for Grayslake. Antioch got the worst of it from the boys with the striped shirts, getting called on 24 violations to only 15 for Grayslake. The Rams topped the Sequoits at the charity line—cashing in 15 points to nine.

Bob Kubicki got back in stride this game and poured in 24 points to share game honors with the Rams' Jimmy Stone. Lang followed with 13 and John Hallwas collected 10 counters. Kubicki and Hallwas were especially hot, hitting 10 out of 14 and 4 out of 6 attempts respectively.

Antioch again dominated the boards, grabbing off 28 rebounds to 28 for Grayslake. The Sequoits will meet conference leading Lake Forest Friday on the Antioch court.

The Antioch soph squad took a double victory last weekend to retain a share of the conference lead with Lake Forest. The sophs will attempt to gain a tie for the lead when they meet the Scouts in the preliminary game here Friday.

Whats

Cookin'?

By Harry H. Stern

JUST BECAUSE WE'VE DONE IT ALL WRONG FOR YEARS IS NO REASON TO CHANGE THINGS NOW.

ICE FISHING REPORT—Not too many anglers have been venturing forth this past week, due no doubt, to the "chilly" weather prevailing. Some of the more hardy ones caught enough to "smell up" the frying pan. One group, led by Doc Jensen, took picks on the remaining bluegills on Indian Point, with about 18 to 25 apiece. Things have been quiet on Channel Lake near Charlie's Inn, and we haven't heard from Rudy Palenik. Could be he has hibernated. And who's to blame him?

CAREFUL! YOU MIGHT MAKE A DECISION.

Last Thursday, Ernie DeLab, Pete Matteoni and "Pierce the Trapper" Chinn returned from a foray on Camp Lake. Each had a walleye weighing 5½, 2½ and 4 pounds, respectively. Next day, the "mob," led by Walleye Brozik and Art "Fingers" Frizell, descended on said lake in force, to do battle with the ferocious Stizostedion vitreum. It looked like a mass exodus as they streamed out of Antioch. Onto the frozen lake they trekked in an almost unbroken line, opened their holes and set the tip-ups. And the wait—there were no reports of frozen toes; or fingers; or noses; or ears. Neither were there any verifiable reports of any fish that were caught. Box score: 24 at bat; no runs, no hits, what an error. Somebody must have tipped the wall-eyes and they swam downstream into Channel Lake to sweat out the BLITZ. Ed Sorenson's bait foundry looked like the deserted village of yore. They're all home now, safe and sound, thawing out.

"Naturalist" Dick Waters and Ralph Fener went up to Lake Geneva Monday, to practice conservation. The word around here is that they were actually after some of "Big Foot's" jumbo Perea flavescens (perch to you, Mac) which are reputed to be as delectable as the Lake Michigan variety. As it turned out, they did practice conservation—not a fish left the water. In Dick's own words, all they got was "back."

Which reminds me of the time one summer, on big Eagle Lake up in Ontario, when it was still considered to be virgin territory by our standards. My buddy "Moose" and me, led by Eddie, our guide, having had our fill of catching walleyes and northern, decided to portage into one of the numerous small lakes that had no name, but did have brook trout in one of its feeder streams. Our path led across a bear wallow, unknown to both of us. We caught 14 nice brookies, and on the way home, with Eddie in the lead, Moose in the middle and me bringing up the rear, fish in one hand, two tackle boxes in the other.

Halfway across the wallow, Eddie turned, eyes as big as saucers, and yelled "There's a bear following you!" Yeah! Yeah! said smart guy me; so is Mae West. (She was hot stuff at that time). Then Moose shouted "Get moving."

On the roster of "A" Club members are Don Blackman, Dean Horton, Al Pedersen, Tom Furlan, Les Miller, Frank Long, Ken Larson, Diane Rathbone, Paul Erickson and Greg Gates.

The Faculty will be out to avenge a 60 to 39 drubbing they suffered at the hands of the "A" Club last year. Proceeds of the game will go to the High School Athletic Department and be used for the purchase of a movie camera for the department.

Tickets will be available at the door Saturday night.

Gino High In Majors

Gina Pichetti of Dee-Gee Lounge scattered the pins for a resounding 682 series last Friday night at the Antioch Bowl. Mike Badame of Blumenschein Excavating turned in another towering 652 series, and Chuck Huber, starting the evening with a 243 game, followed by a 246, had a 644 series. Hank Kapell's high single game of 266 and Huber's 644 series helped Kennedy's Pro Shop to a high team series of 2871 for the night.

High-scoring George Sargent, who has been absent from the Antioch Majors for some time, is back and bowling with Kennedy's Pro Shop.

Stern, he's on your tail!" I looked and doggone if he wasn't. I began picking 'em up and laying 'em down, and so did he. Then someone yelled, "Throw him the fish," and I yelled back I'd see him in hell before I gave up the fruits of our labor. That bear has been in the hot place since then because I flung them fish at him when I felt his hot breath on my tender neck. You've never seen three guys move as fast as we did that day. Yipes.

IF I COME TO WORK LATE I MAKE UP FOR IT BY LEAVING EARLY.

Take charge of the lights!

Old Fitz Tops All-Star Team

Maybe they had "buck fever". Or maybe it was just one of those days. Whatever the reason, the All-Stars, five of Antioch's best bowlers, just couldn't seem to get going Sunday afternoon as they tried to match strikes with the Old Fitzgerald team from Chicago.

Except for a brief surge of hope, when it looked like Joe Sterbenz might roll a 300 game to top off the afternoon, the bowling was pretty up-and-down on both teams.

Local Man Completes Car of The Year Study Course

L. D. Bever, Route 3, Antioch, has recently completed an extensive course of study in the field of dairy cattle production and management and has been presented a Certificate of Award as a Dairy Cattle Specialist.
The course is organized and conducted by the Moorman Mfg. Co., Quincy, Ill., for whom Mr. Bever is a District Sales Manager.

Winter driving often is a slippery business, cautions the Chicago Motor Club. When driving on ice and snow avoid sudden application of the brakes. If you begin to skid, steer in the direction of the skid. In other words, if the rear wheels skid to the right, turn the steering wheel to the right.

Motor Trend Magazine's Car of the Year Award has gone to the 1963 American Motors' Rambler.

The Car of the Year trophy is generally awarded for styling. However, this year, the magazine announced, the trophy was awarded for "This year's best examples of outstanding design achievement and engineering leadership."
